

Probers Ask Memoranda Pointing To May 'Influence'

By JOHN W. HENDERSON
Washington, July 11 (AP)—The Mead committee asked today to see the memos which Brig. Gen. Roswell Hardy said convinced him Rep. May (D-Ky) was exercising "influence" to obtain "equal opportunity" for certain war contractors.

Hardy, war-time chief of the ammunition division of the war department, added in his testimony before the Senate war investigating group yesterday that he could recall no case in which May had interceded to obtain preferential treatment for any of the companies making up the so-called "paper empire" of munitions firms.

But he said he became convinced influence was being employed on behalf of Batavia Metal Products company, one member of the combine, late in the fall of 1944 or early in 1945.

May Not Quiz Rep. May
Hardy asserted he would furnish the committee memoranda on which this conclusion was based. He offered first a notation relating to a telephone conversation between May and Maj. L. H. Campbell, then chief of ordnance, but his testimony was cut short by a committee recess for the day.

Meanwhile, George Meader, chief counsel for the committee, expressed doubt that any action would be taken toward compelling May's appearance as a formal witness. It is probable, Meader told a reporter, that May could not be required to appear, even by congressional action.

The Kentucky lawmaker, chairman of the House military committee, has denied any financial interest in or profit from the combine, whose war profits are under scrutiny by the Senate committee.

MAJ. DUCKSTAD WILL RETIRE

Major Eric E. Duckstad, 28-year-old son of Mrs. Kenderton S. Lynch, Breidenbaugh apartments, will retire August 6 from the U. S. Army with the rank of major, according to a notice in a current issue of the Army and Navy Register published at Washington, D. C.

He is being retired due to a knee injury which he received during tank operations in the Louisiana maneuvers in 1941 where he was serving as an umpire with the First Army. He was hospitalized at Fort Bragg, N. C., during October and November of that year and submitted to an operation. However, he never fully recovered from the knee injury.

He reported in January, 1942, at Fort Lewis, Wash., where he was adjutant of a tank battalion until November of that year when he participated in the desert maneuvers in California. Later he attended the Armored Force school at Fort Knox and after graduation was detailed to the armored Force school there and served for two years as adjutant.

Plans Postgraduate Work
During that time he was detailed to the Command and General Staff school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and at graduation divided first honors with another officer. For the last year, he has been assistant professor of military science and tactics at Stanford university, Palo Alto, Calif., where he is in charge of the 5th Training Unit.

Major Duckstad entered service in July, 1939, a month after his graduation from Gettysburg college. He was called to active duty as a Reserve Officer under the Thomas act and went to Fort Howard, Md. In July, 1940, he received his permanent commission in the United States Army, one of four youths from Pennsylvania from 1,000 who had been called to duty. He was assigned to the Armored Forces and was stationed at Fort Meade. While there he attended the Signal Corps school at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., just before the Louisiana maneuvers.

He plans to take postgraduate work in business administration this fall at Stanford university.

SERVICE SUNDAY IN MEMORY OF JAMES N. WELCH

A memorial service honoring James Nelson Welch, aviation machinist's mate 3/c, of York Springs, who was killed in action off the China coast in World War II, will be held in the York Springs Methodist church Sunday afternoon, July 21, at 2:30 p. m. Welch was a member of the church.

The service will open with a piano prelude, and the prayer and invocation by the pastor, the Rev. Orville Warner, followed by the singing of the Navy hymn No. 553, by the choir; responsive readings; a solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by George Houck; a second hymn, and the reading of letters from a crew member of Welch's plane and letters from Capt. R. L. Lewis, CMC, and Lt. J. E. Kyle, Jr., and a message from the Rev. Earl N. Rowe, former pastor.

Another solo by Mr. Houck, the prayer of dedication, singing of the hymn, "Crossing the Bar," and the benediction, will close the service.

Served With Bomb Squadron
Welch was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Welch, York Springs. He was born September 22, 1924 at Henderson, Md., and joined the Methodist church there when ten years old. He transferred his membership to the York Springs church after moving to Pennsylvania in January of 1937.

He enlisted in the navy January 13, 1943, and received his boot training at Sampson Naval Training Station, Geneva, N. Y. He had a six-month schooling for aviation machinist at Navy Pier, Chicago, graduating there October 1, 1943, and then went to aerial gunnery school at Purcell, Okla. Later he was given a course at the naval aviation base at Jacksonville, Fla., from which he graduated as an aircrewman in March of 1944. From Florida he was sent to Hutchinson, Kan., for squadron training and left the states the latter part of November.

Welch was based on Tinian for a time, and when reported missing was operating from Okinawa with Patrol Bombing Squadron No. 118. He was holder of the Purple Heart.

Welch graduated from Biglerville high school with the class of 1941 and was a member of the school band.

The deceased was born in Adams county, a son of the late McMillan P. Carbaugh, and Mrs. Flora Deardorff Carbaugh, who resided with him. Recruiting Unit Here Next Week

Sergeant Walter J. Stubbs, local army recruiter, announced today that a huge AAF 10-wheel, 45-foot recruiting trailer will be in Gettysburg on July 18 and 19 for recruiting purposes and to give the public some knowledge of the intricate equipment used by the AAF.

Among the interesting displays that actually operate is a model electric propeller, a bomb sight, an automatic pilot, and a film projector with a reflector box, enabling motion pictures to be shown beside the van.

The trailer will be located on Center Square in front of the Dunlop tire store, Sgt. Stubbs said. It will be open for free public inspection afternoons and evenings.

The trailer will be in charge of Captain A. R. Urso, Olmstead Field, Middletown, who has spent 22 of his 39 years in the army. He set up the arrangement of displays and working models in the trailer. On duty with the van to explain and operate the equipment are Sergeants Phillips, Peters and Gordon, all overseas veterans.

He expressed his thanks and appreciation in behalf of the society "to the many organizations and individuals who have donated funds that will be used to aid physically handicapped boys and girls throughout the county." He also thanked the organizations that cooperated in preparing for and conducting the campaign. According to arrangements made by Mrs. Naomi L. Gable, Chambersburg street, acting area supervising nurse under the USDA Labor office here, and Samuel Householder, executive director of the Agricultural Workers Health Association, Doctor Munley will hold dental clinics at Camp Sharpe while the farm laborers are there and will provide services when dental emergencies arise among the laborers.

Proposed New American Legion Post Home

This is an architect's drawing of the front of the proposed new home for the Albert J. Lentz Post No. 202, The American Legion, which will be reconstructed from the present home and an additional property recently acquired by the local post. The structure is expected to be the most modern in appearance in town and its approximate cost is $75,000.

VET-FARMERS MEET WITH POULTRYMEN

Twelve former servicemen who are enrolled in the Adams county GI training program in agriculture, were among the 22 who attended the poultry raisers' meeting at the court house Wednesday night arranged by the Adams county extension service. The principal speaker was C. O. Dossin, poultry specialist, State College.

Mr. Dossin pointed out that a year ago the Department of Agriculture anticipated a surplus of poultry and eggs on the metropolitan market and suggested a reduction of approximately ten per cent in the size of flocks.

"Due to an apparent shortage of meat the per capita consumption both of eggs and poultry was considerably higher than normal," he said. "This has kept the market active for poultry and eggs," he added.

Urges Thorough Culling
"There were, however, eight million cases of eggs in storage June 1. Checking with government inspectors, these eggs, which were placed in storage from western supplies, do not seem to meet the standards of the fresh egg market in the east. This means that eggs in storage may not affect quality egg prices to any great extent."

"Due to uncertain conditions in regard to changing prices of feed and retail markets, it is doubtful that it would be advisable to make any increase in inventory or expansion of capital equipment," Mr. Dossin said.

The speaker suggested that flocks be culled thoroughly and frequently to prevent feeding of birds not in production. He pointed out some of the diseases prevalent in Pennsylvania flocks and their control measures. A post mortem demonstration was given on a bird which had had an apparent weakness or disease condition and the seat of the trouble located.

The American Legion service was conducted by the South Mountain Post No. 674, Mt. Holly Springs. The Rev. H. W. Sternat, chaplain of the Biglerville Legion post, conducted the religious ceremony. A firing squad was under the direction of Sgt. J. J. Durkin of the Company A, 772nd M. P. Battalion, Carlisle Barracks. Sgt. William H. Bartley, of the same company was bugler.

The pallbearers, all veterans of World War II, included Donald A. Spangler, Wilford H. Spangler, Robert M. Heller, Charles Slaybaugh, Dale Pottorff and Guy Fidler.

Among those in attendance were these county pastors: Revs. Alvin J. Forry, Evangelical and Reformed, East Berlin; John H. Ehrhart, Evangelical and Reformed, and G. S. Stoneback, Mennonite, both of Fairfield.

Barkley Presses For New OPA Bill Today

Washington, July 11 (AP)—Un-doubtedly by open talk of another veto, Democratic Leader Barkley pressed the Senate today for final action on a new OPA bill even if it means working into the night again.

Cheerful despite rapid setbacks in the form of hands-off amendments, covering meats, milk, butter, salad oils and gasoline, the Kentuckian told reporters he still is hopeful of getting a price control revival measure that the President could sign.

"We got a better bill than either the Senate or House passed last time from a conference," Barkley said. "Maybe we can still improve on that this time."

But another administration lieutenant who may not be identified further said President Truman would balk again unless some way is found to overturn Senate actions barring future price ceilings on many items important in the cost of living.

Across the capitol, Rep. Wolcott of Michigan, senior Republican on the House Banking committee, told reporters "it appears that only rent control will remain" when Congress and the President finish their battle over OPA.

He said a motion in the House to concur in all Senate actions might prevail.

Major tests facing the Senate today include an attempt by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) to reinstate his price-boosting profit provision which drew chief White House fire in the veto message and several proposals dealing with rent controls that expired along with OPA.

Barkley appeared unworried, however, by the threats of Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) to try to talk the bill to death or to call up an extraneous amendment to create a permanent Fair Employment Practice Commission.

Most Senators expect Barkley to get around the FEPC rider—which would be certain to provoke southerners to filibusters — by a parliamentary move.

The newest proposal dealing with rent controls came from Senator Hawkes (R-NJ) who asked that if they are reinstated all maximum rents be boosted five per cent effective June 30 last, another five per cent November 30 and a final five per cent on March 31 of next year.

Firemen Invited To Hanover Fete

Plans to take part in a celebration to be held by the Hanover firemen on July 27 at Hanover, were outlined Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of the local fire company at the firemen's retreat in South Mountains.

After discussion of the plans for the celebration the company voted to participate. The Blue and Gray band will play for the Gettysburg contingent in the parade during the state convention at York in October.

GIFT PACKAGES ARE SHIPPED TO FRIENDS ABROAD

Gift boxes marked "Gettysburg, Penna., U.S.A." and addressed to Greece, Czechoslovakia and other foreign countries have passed through the local postoffice by the score the past few months.

Most of the gifts, boxes of clothing, sent by Gettysburg residents, are addressed to people in Greece. One postal clerk today estimated that at least 50 boxes of clothing have been sent by Gettysburgians to relations and friends in Greece.

Mailing restrictions have been lifted since the end of the war so that now it is possible to send packages to civilians of any foreign country with the exception of Japan and portions of Germany outside the American zone. Most recent addition to the list of countries to which parcel post may be sent are Austria and Korea.

Are Duty Free
Most parcels, if marked "gift" are duty free. Only one package per week is allowed each person and the packages may not weigh more than 11 pounds and must be less than 72 inches in length and girth combined. Packages may not be registered or insured, but complete details of contents must be written on the package. Post office employees have on hand a supply of forms to expedite mailing of overseas packages.

In reviewing letters from civilians in destitute countries, local relatives and friends have noted that clothing is sought as much as food in many instances.

Destitute relatives have written kin in the county recently stating that although UNRRA is helping greatly, donations have not "scratched below the surface of the need."

Overseas civilians, especially those in countries over-run by the Nazis, have already written American friends in quest of clothing for the coming winter months.

Some have mentioned the desperate need for writing paper.

5 Grain Elevators Built At New Chester

The construction of five concrete grain elevators with a total capacity of 30,000 bushels, said to be the first project of its kind in Adams county, was completed Wednesday at New Chester.

Melvin M. Sharrer, owner of the D. H. Sharrer and Son flour mill at New Chester, for whom the elevators were erected, said the project cost $16,000.

Sharrer said that some wheat already has been stored in the elevators.

The flour dealer stated that farmers could store their wheat in the elevators for themselves or the government, or sell it outright to his concern. Farmers have until May 1, 1947 to store this year's crop, he said.

Work was begun on the project last fall and then abandoned for the winter. It was resumed in April Mr. Sharrer stated.

One of the elevators is 70 feet high; the other four rise 67 feet each, the grain dealer said.

COUNTY BRIDGE IS CLOSED FOR EARLY REPAIRS

The Adams county commissioners inspected a bridge on the road between Bendersville and the Peach Glen road, Wednesday, and closed the bridge to traffic pending repairs.

Clarence C. Smith, secretary to the commissioners, said the planking of the bridge, known on the county map as bridge No. 103, was broken by a truck Monday night.

An order has been placed for lumber, with a promise of delivery this week, and repairs will be started next week, Mr. Smith said. New stringers will be laid and the planking repaired by John R. Taylor, Menallen township road commissioner.

The commissioners also inspected the county jail, and ordered repairs to rooms damaged recently by two prisoners, who later were committed to Harrisburg. An estimate of the damage was placed at $50. A radiator was torn loose and a heavy oak door ruined by a male prisoner from Littlestown, and the plumbing damaged by a Gettysburg woman detained at the jail.

The advertising for bids for construction of the new jail is being held up, Mr. Smith said, until the commissioners can obtain a priority rating for scarce materials from the Philadelphia office of the Civilian Products Authority. The plans have been approved by the county commissioners and the state welfare department and the site, on the county property on Biglerville road selected.

CAR SMASHED, DRIVER UNHURT

Mabel R. Malcolm, Akron, Ohio, who is visiting friends near Fairfield, narrowly escaped death when his car went out of control on a curve of the Fairfield-Ortanna road Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock.

State police who investigated said Malcolm was driving a car owned by Mrs. Iva Sites Hertz in the direction of Fairfield about one mile north of Fairfield when he ran off the left side of the road, crossed the road to the right side, narrowly missed hitting an eight-year-old boy walking along the road, broke off a telephone pole, hit an abutment, turned around twice and finally overturned.

Malcolm escaped without a scratch, according to police. Damage to the car was estimated at $700.

Police charged the Akron man with reckless driving before Justice of the Peace H. L. Harbaugh, Fairfield. He paid a fine and costs totaling $28.50.

Several other arrests were also made by state police with Wayne D. Keefer, Washington, D. C., charged before Justice F. E. Coulson, York Springs, with driving on the wrong side of the highway. He paid a fine and costs. George Snyder, York, was charged with driving through a stop sign before Justice of the Peace George Baker, Abbottstown.

Of the 159 members of the lodge who were in service more than 100 are expected to attend the dinner. Two of the lodge members died while in service, one in combat overseas.

PEACE TREATIES WILL NOT INSURE END OF CRISES

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Come the 29th of this month and twenty-one Allied nations will assemble in the old Luxembourg palace in Paris to lay down peace terms for the Axis countries of Italy, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Finland—that is, the conference will assemble unless it is blocked by some great power with a penchant for throwing monkey-wrenches into the machinery.

Employment of the term "peace treaty" of course connotes that war with arms is finished, and the corollary to this is that tranquility once more has settled over the land. The present situation, however, strikes me as providing an exception to the general rule.

It's true that the sound of guns and bursting bombs is stilled—and isn't likely to be heard again in a major way for a long time. But just as surely as the sun will rise tomorrow the world is facing an unprecedented period of political turmoil which neither your nor I will live to see completed. Europe is the center of the upheaval now—but it will spread.

May Join Soviet
The fixing of peace terms for Italy and the other four states naturally will be a step forward. It will help steady the morale of the defeated peoples and give them hope at a moment when it is badly needed. Beyond that, however, the treaties aren't likely to alter the present situation vastly.

That is to say, we are going to see a continuation of Russia's drive to extend her zone of influence, with England fighting to salvage what she can from the dominant position which she held before the World War turned things topsy-turvy. That will be a battle to a finish—political-economic rather than military—but none the less deadly.

Moscow has tacitly designated the Stettin-Adriatic line through central Europe as the western frontier of her zone of iron-clad dominance. Within that sphere lie not only the treaty nations of Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Finland but also big Yugoslavia, Albania, Poland and Czechoslovakia. The signing of treaties cannot alter this status for the four defeated Axis satellites and it will be surprising, as I see it, if before long we don't see one or more of the countries in this zone of influence make application for membership in the Union of Soviet Republics.

Won't Rest On Laurels
But it's wholly clear from Russia's tactics and general strategy that she has no intention of resting on her laurels when she has consolidated the vast territory which she already has brought under her control. The "world revolution" for the spread of Communism—of which we heard so much back in the early twenties—is again under way and will grow.

Marshall Stalin largely shelved this world crusade when he came to power after Lenin's death, in order to devote all Russia's energy to the creation of a great industrial system and a strong army. "World revolution" could wait until the Soviet Union was powerful and a more opportune moment for the spread of the Redism arrived. That moment has come.

ASKS 10,000 SETS OF EYES

Pittsburgh, July 11 (AP)—Dr. H. E. Pine of Chicago, president of the national Optometric Fraternity Beta Sigma Kappa, said today he will appeal to the approximately 10,000 members of the American Optometric association to allow their eyes to be used, after death, for the benefit of persons made blind by disease or accident.

The idea, which Dr. Pine believes will meet with much success, occurred to him suddenly while he was addressing the B.S.K. here yesterday. He had no such thought in mind when he opened his talk, Dr. Pine said, but he suddenly found himself appealing to members of the fraternity to bequeath their eyes to cornea banks for re-use by surgeons.

All 300 B.S.K. members immediately endorsed the idea. Dr. Pine believes every "eye-doctor" in the country will do the same.

"These men have devoted their lives to improving vision," he declared. "What better way of improving people's vision could be found than willing their eyes to posterity?"

Husband's Slayers Spared By Widow

New York, July 11 (AP)—The lives of three gunmen, convicted of first degree murder, will be spared because a young widow refused to exact eye-for-an-eye punishment.

For one suspense-charged moment yesterday, Mrs. Barbara Davis, 23, wife of the slain boxer, Al (Bummy) Davis, held the fate of the trio in her hand after Kings county court Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz, preparing to sentence the youths, told her: "Mrs. Davis, I have the power to send these men to the chair. What are your wishes?"

Then, with head bowed, Mrs. Davis, mother of a three-year-old child, said: "I don't believe in capital punishment. Whatever you decide to do will be all right with me."

Leibowitz sentenced the trio, John Romano, 23, Vincent Giarrappa, 23, of Brooklyn, and Russell Donohoe, 24, Kansas City, to life imprisonment. They were convicted May 28 for the killing of Davis last November in a Brooklyn barroom holdup. An all male jury had recommended clemency.

MOLOTOV IS CHAMPION OF UNIFIED REICH

By JOSEPH DYNAN

Paris, July 11 (AP)—Russia emerged today as the champion of a reunified and self-sufficient Germany on the basis of a policy-charting speech yesterday by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Addressing his colleagues on the foreign minister council, Molotov flatly opposed the dismemberment or federalization of Germany or reduction of the Reich to an agricultural state.

The speech was the first clear cut expression of the Khemlin's attitude toward Germany since the end of the war.

Some quarters here were inclined to write off the address as a Russian bid for popularity within the Reich, and as a move to strengthen the forces of German communists.

Conflict with French
It was generally conceded that Molotov, in the eyes of the average German, now stood for a Germany governed by Germans, and for the return of a decent standard of living.

French official quarters expressed dismay that the Russian policy of unification was in direct conflict with the French proposal to separate the Ruhr, the Saar and the Rhineland from the remainder of the Reich.

It was not immediately clear whether the Russian statement of policy would delay the adjournment of the council, tentatively planned for this week-end. The ministers were called into session today to resume discussions on Germany. They are scheduled to approve final drafts of peace treaties with Italy, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Finland on Saturday.

Molotov urged the ministers not to be governed by "the spirit of revenge" in dealing with Germany, and said that Russia would not object to the splitting up of the Reich if plebiscites should show that this was the desire of the Germans involved.

"Transitional Step"

He urged the immediate creation of a central German administration "as a transitional step toward the establishment of a future German government" with which the allies eventually could sign a peace treaty.

"Our purpose is not to destroy Germany but to transform Germany into a democratic and peace-loving state which, next to its agriculture, will have its own industry and foreign trade, but which will be deprived of economic and military potentialities to rise again as an aggressive force," Molotov said.

He called for the establishment of a system of four-power control over German industries and over key Ruhr plants in particular. At present the Ruhr is administered exclusively by the British.

Heller arrived in the states on June 14 from Yokohama, Japan, and since his discharge visited friends in San Francisco, Long Beach and Los Angeles, Calif.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio; West Sumner, Mass., and Syracuse and New York city.

The population of the earth increases approximately 20,000,000 annually.

BULLETINS

Washington, July 11 (AP)—The House approved today Senate amendments to a billion dollar flood control bill. The bill now goes back to the Senate for final Congressional action. None of the amendments affected Pennsylvania projects.

Peiping, July 11 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist press reported today that a government army counter-attack had blunted the Communist troops' assault on Chingchen, 50 miles south of Tientsin on the Tientsin-pukow rail line. The reports said, however, that conditions remained critical at Chingchen, 25 miles south of Tientsin, and that the Reds had tightened their encirclement of Tsanghsien, 25 miles below Chingchen.

Manila, July 11 (AP)—One thousand military police were dispatched unexpectedly today to Pampanga province, center of peasant unrest, as President Roxas expressed optimism over prospects for a quick settlement of the Central Luzon trouble.

Tokyo, July 11 (AP)—More than 800 workers were ill today with ptomaine poisoning, caused by eating tainted fish loaves served at 20 factories. Police described the mass poisoning as the worst ever experienced here. No deaths were reported.

New York, July 11 (AP)—The Coast Guard reported an explosion occurred today aboard a 60-foot fishing boat, the Mamie Sutter, about a mile off Rockaway Point Jetty, and at least nine survivors were brought ashore shortly afterward. Two Coast Guard vessels, a rescue boat from the Rockaway Lifeboat Station and an Atlantic Beach picket boat, were sent to the scene.

Washington, July 11 (AP)—Critics of the $3,750,000,000 British loan lined up today behind a proposed amendment requiring Britain to post collateral for any advance of United States credit. Rep. Dirksen (R.-Ill.) announced he will support the loan bill if collateral is required. A final vote on the issue is set for Saturday.

MILK DEALERS SEEK TO AVERT NEW PRICE JUMP

Harrisburg, July 11 (AP)—Milk dealers sought a reduction today in a proposed price increase for bulk milk in an effort to avert another boost to consumers.

Arguments—between dealers and producers—were heard as part of price conferences held by the state Milk Control commission on tentative orders which would set a minimum of $5.50 a hundredweight (46½ quarts) to be paid to dairy farmers sending milk to the Philadelphia area.

Morris Duane, counsel for the Milk Distributors association, asked that the $5.50 figure be reduced to $5.39 to comply with dealers' intentions not to increase the resale price beyond 19 cents.

"They (the dealers) will do everything possible to hold that price and we ask the commission not to increase their costs," he added.

Adequate Supply At $5.50
He made the statement yesterday at the first of a series of conferences called by the commission to fix terms of a new price order setting as minimum prices recent increases already put into effect in most sections of the state after the end of OPA.

The commission does not fix maximum prices.

"The $5.50 price for the four per cent butterfat milk is a greater price than distributors should be asked to pay," Duane said, "and the only result would be a further increase to consumers. That we do not want to do."

A. Evans Kephart, counsel for the Interstate Milk Producers' cooperatives, countered with an assertion that a price of $5.50 would insure an adequate supply of milk for Philadelphia.

Farmers asked $5.39 a hundredweight for their milk on July 8, but Kephart said they never intended to indicate that that price "gives them the cost of production or a reasonable profit."

TIME MAGAZINE UP

New York, July 11 (AP)—Time magazine today announced it was raising its price to 20 cents on newsstands or $6.50 for yearly subscriptions.

"Time has held to its original price all during the war years, and now reluctantly makes this announcement because of greatly increased costs," said an announcement in the July 15 issue.

The old price was 15 cents on newsstands or $5 a year.

Of that amount, 68 cases involved ex-service men, 28 soldiers, nine sailors and 20 civilians. Sixty-four office visits and 13 home visits were made in connection with the cases.

The Acme softball team strengthened its hold on first place in the Community Softball league Wednesday evening by winning its 10th straight game at the expense of the Moose 4-2.

Taking advantage of Moose misuses in the first two frames, the league-leaders piled up a 4-0 lead in the first two innings and then staved off a Moose rally in the sixth to triumph.

In the second game on the high school field the Varsity Barbers took their second straight defeat by bowing to the State Highway 4-2. The Highway tabbed a run in the second and three more in the third. The Barbers pushed over their two runs in the fourth. Donaldson hurried for the winners while Timbers pitched for the losers.

The Marketers gained a victory through a 9-0 forfeit by the State Guard. Scheduled to play the opener on the college field, the game was forfeited when but four guardsmen appeared for the contest.

A fifth innings rally for four runs on three hits, two walks and an error gave the Elks an 8-5 verdict over the Ice and Storage outfit in the second game on the college diamond. Through their victory the Elks moved into fifth place.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
The Scranton Miners owe their long eastern league in part to their ability to beat the cellar-dwelling Williamsport Grays.

The Grays attempted last night for the 10th time this season to win a decision from the Miners but were beaten, 7 to 6.

The second place Albany Senators and the third place Hartford Chiefs also won, the Senators handing the Utica Blue Sox their sixth straight defeat, 8 to 4, and the Chiefs turning back the Binghamton triplets, 6 to 3.

The Wilkes-Barre Barons bowed, in an exhibition game to the Cleveland Indians of the American league, 4 to 2.

CARDINALS SET TO OPEN DRIVE FOR TOP POST

By RALPH RODEN

(Associated Press Sports Editor)
The St. Louis Cardinals, owners of more pennants and first division finishes than any other club in the National league during the past 20 years, appear ready to start another of their famous stretch drives as the second half of the major league season begins today.

Trailing the crippled Brooklyn Dodgers by five games, the runner-up Red Birds enter the crucial stage of the flag race boasting a five game winning streak.

The New York Giants grapple with Manager Eddie Dyer's challenging crew under the arcs tonight while the Dodgers, hampered by the loss of Pee Wee Reese, tangle with the defending champion Chicago Cubs in the Windy city.

The Cards, who have won eight pennants and wound up 17 times in the first division since 1925 have come from behind after trailing in July to win four of their pennants during the late stages of the campaigns.

The American league spotlight will be focused on the Yankee stadium where Bobby Feller of the Cleveland Indians and Spud Chandler of the second-place New York Yankees are slated to oppose each other in a night contest.

The Boston Red Sox, seven-and-one-half games in front of the Yanks, are scheduled to meet the Detroit Tigers in the opener of an 11-day home stay.

Many Champs On Kansas City Links

Kansas City, July 11 (AP)—Champions of practically every major Golf classic in the world were among the 165 players scheduled to tee off in the four-day $20,000 Kansas City invitational tournament play.

The tournament, Kansas City's first major golf affair in eight years, was set for the 6,592-yard par-72 Hillcrest Country club course.

Regarded as the men to beat for the $2,500 jackpot were, as usual, shot master Byron Nelson, Toledo, Ohio, PGA champion, and the bantamweight ex-Dallas, Texas, caddy, Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., champion money-maker of the year.

Flyweight Champ Disappoints In Win

Glasgow, Scotland, July 11 (AP)—Aggressive Jackie Paterson still held the flyweight championship of the world today but ring writers pointed to his failure to knockout runaway Joe Curran in their 15-round title bout last night as proof that he was weakened in making the 112-pound weight.

Champion since 1943, the 26-year-old Scot outpointed the Liverpool veteran in a dull contest that disappointed a crowd of 50,000 in Hampden.

Paterson, who has been fighting overweight recently, had to battle the calories to get his weight down to the 112 pound limit, which he did without an ounce to spare. Curran was three pounds lighter at 109.

Today's Talk

HIDERS

I wonder if we are not all of us given to hiding — hiding our emotions, our love, our impulses, and our inward joys?

I have thousands of books, and a very interesting collection of works of art that I have been gathering for over half my lifetime. Too many of each have been hidden away where they could not spread their beauty and their worth. Recently I have overhauled my library. Books have been brought to the light that have known darkness for years. Now they all look out at me from their shelves, with invisible smiles that are an inspiring sight.

Hundreds of these books I have presented to great educational institutions where they will become an asset to scholars and to those who have loved the things that I have loved. And I feel happier, healthier, and better in every way.

Every one of us owes someone else something. And the sooner we pay up this obligation, to the best of our ability, the better for us, others, and even the world at large! We must not hide our lights under a bushel. We are blessed that we, in turn, may bless.

You have read what Emerson has said, that if we neglect to utter a truth, or enact a deed, we are sure to note someone else carrying off the honors — or words to the same effect. But there is immortal truth packed into this thought.

Every time we express a noble thought, or fail to put it to work, we shrink. Not only that — we rob ourselves of inward joy. Why should we fear to exhibit our finest sentiments through frank and honest expression? We were born into this world to unfold, to radiate influence, and to be felt by all with whom we come in contact.

That woman, in the Bible story, who hid her only talent, was later rebuked, losing even the talent that she was given, simply because she did nothing with it — hiding it from activity and growth. We may perhaps be commended for hiding our sorrows, our disappointments, and our human hurts, but let us not allow our joys to know anything about the fact!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Our Loves."

EMMITSBURG HOPES TO SNAP TIE ON SUNDAY

Emmitsburg, still in a tie with McSherrystown for first place in the Penn-Maryland baseball league, looked forward today to Sunday's game with Harney, on the Emmitsburg diamond, with the hope that Emmitsburg will be able to pull a win while McSherrystown draws a loss in its contest Sunday.

The Emmitsburgians are also hoping for a big crowd Sunday afternoon at the newly completed Emmitsburg field which now has stands available for 350 persons, and seats along the sidelines for another 300 rooters. Besides the new stands, dug-outs have been completed and distance signs have been placed in left field, where it is 310 feet from home plate to the edge of the field; center field, where a ball would have to be hit 425 feet to clear the edge of the playing field and right field, where the distance is 325 feet. The field has been completely fenced in and the old fire company pavilions have been repaired and placed to provide shade for spectators at the games.

Last Sunday Emmitsburg lost a heartbreaking game 7 to 6 to the Thurmont nine in a Penn-Maryland contest. Reliever Fraley was Thurmont's hero of Sunday's contest. He took over in the sixth with one out and the bases loaded to allow but one run in for Emmitsburg and then stopped the leaders cold.

Emmitsburg led 6-3 going into the last of the seventh when Thurmont tied it up. In the ninth, Briscuso, Mt. Saint Mary's potent hurler, pitching for Emmitsburg weakened. Charley Pittinger, John Strine, and Fleagle hit safely to load the bags. Jim Strine's following single broke up the ball game scoring the winning tally for Thurmont.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Nuptial Mass at St. Ignatius: Two prominent young folks of Buchanan Valley were united in marriage at a high nuptial mass, which was solemnized in the St. Ignatius Jesuit mission, Tuesday morning, June 29, when Miss Josephine Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brady, became the bride of Lawrence Ignatius Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Hall. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Whalen.

Mrs. Dickson Is Awarded Honors for Best Flowers: An innovation was started Thursday at the exhibition of mixed flowers on display at the court house, when the visitors to the show picked the most beautiful display by ballot. According to the votes cast, Mrs. J. Allen Dickson was awarded first honors with her entry of a basket of delphiniums, fox gloves, canterbury bells and roses.

Gettysburg's Celebration Held in Theatre: A dull and dully sodden day, with rain falling almost continuously, put a decided crimp in the program of the exercises scheduled for Gettysburg's celebration of the sesquicentennial of American independence and the sixty-third anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, Monday, and kept large crowds of anticipated tourists away from the town.

Rain necessitated staging the program arranged to be held at the rostrum in the National cemetery in the Lincoln Way Theatre. Henry R. Rathbone, congressman-at-large from Illinois, was the main speaker at the celebration, planned by the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce.

Sells Home Norman H. Musselman has sold his home on East Middle street to J. Willis Applier, who will take possession September 1. Mr. Musselman expects to move to Lancaster. Transfer was made by C. A. Williams, Hanover street.

Cherry Picking Now at Height in New Orchards: Adams county's "baby industry," sour cherry cultivation, is now in full swing and will continue at its height for at least another week.

At the orchard of John and Ivan Musselman, at Orrtanna, more than thirty acres are in bearing and a troop of nearly 200 pickers has been engaged in stripping the trees of their tart fruit, but the yield is so heavy that it is estimated that it will take over another week for them to complete their job.

Deferred Exhibition of Fireworks Is Seen by Thrill Memorial Field was the scene of a large crowd when it was dedicated last fall, but it never witnessed anything like the milling masses of people who packed and jammed its grandstand and bleachers and thousands of others, unable to secure seats, who stood or sat around the battle ground of gridders. The occasion was the community display of fireworks, postponed from Monday evening on account of the rain.

Record Crowd at Fairfield For Old Home Week: Rain, rain and more rain, deluged the Old Home Week celebration and Firemen's Carnival, at Fairfield on Monday and also on Saturday, but such a slight inconvenience failed to dampen the ardor of the visitors to the event who were in search of a good time.

Keziah Kuff Is Buried Sunday: Funeral services for Mrs. Keziah Elizabeth Kuff, whose age, according to family Bible records, and as it appears on the death certificate, was 122 years, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Asbury Methodist Episcopal church. The services were in charge of the Rev. W. O. Lyles and the Rev. Mr. Johnson.

Factories Close Until July 12: The Gettysburg and Reaser furniture companies and the Gettysburg Panel company shut down Friday evening, July 2, until Monday morning, July 12, when the workmen will go

"FRAIDY CAT"

"Grandpa's just a little old For the water when it's cold. So when 'Swimming time!' they cry,

"Not today!" is my reply. As a swimmer, grandpa's not Quite the healthiest of the lot.

"Even as a little lad, 'Twas the 'shivers' that he had. Swimming turned his lips to blue, And his teeth would chatter, too. Never could he quite contrive Very gracefully to dive.

"As a 'belly smacker' he Struck the water noisily. Very much to his regret, He's not fond of being wet. Just three minutes in the lake, And his body starts to shake.

"On the shore he must recline, Though you shout: 'The water's fine!'

It's the bitter truth, and grim, Grandpa doesn't like to swim. Hey, you children, none of that! Don't you call him 'fraydy cat!'"

Firemen To Buy New Equipment

The Emmitsburg fire company voted to buy nozzles and other needed equipment at a meeting Tuesday evening at the engine house.

Also scheduled for improvement is the fire hall, with the 25 firemen present for the session voting to have the hall repaired and renovated and new racks placed for the coats, boots and hats recently purchased by the firemen.

Members of the committee in charge announced that the cash donation solicitation is continuing with excellent results from the business places seen so far. The firemen plan to continue solicitation of the business men and then to conduct a house-to-house canvass in the town and in the Emmitsburg community area in the surrounding countryside.

BOY, 14, HELD AS MURDERER; SOUGHT THRILL

Waynesburg, Pa., July 11 (AP)—Sheriff Emil W. Fox said today a 14-year-old orphan boy, who described himself as an avid reader of "murder stories," told of killing a 63-year-old farmwife yesterday "for the thrill of killing."

Stabbed through the back with a carving knife while she was mixing bread dough, Mrs. Frank Fletcher was found dead in her Graysville farm home by her husband.

Following a state police investigation, a coroner's jury returned a finding that Mrs. Fletcher was killed "by a stab wound in the back inflicted by an 8-inch butcher knife in the hands of Donald Mullenaux."

Was Ward of Court

Fletcher, who had sent the Mullenaux boy to the farmhouse for a jug of water, followed when the

United States Well On Way Toward Sixth Consecutive Bumper Crop Harvest

CURRENT CROP OUTLOOK ONE OF BEST EVER

By OVID A. MARTIN
(AP Farm Reporter)

Washington, July 11 (AP)—This country is well on the way today toward its sixth consecutive bumper harvest.

In fact, the Agricultural Department in its latest monthly crop report said the current outlook for total farm production has seldom been surpassed.

The report issued yesterday said conditions prevailing July 1 indicated a record corn crop, near-record crops of wheat, oats, potatoes and rice, and large crops of vegetables and most fruits.

Grain Outlook Good

The outlook on grains was particularly gratifying to food officials, because supplies have been largely depleted in meeting foreign relief demands and in feeding a near-record livestock population.

If the grain crops turn out as now indicated, the nation will be in a position to carry out its commitment to send 250,000,000 bushels of wheat during the next 12 months and still maintain production of livestock products—meats, milk, eggs and poultry—at levels near those of the past year.

While the corn crop—the key material in the production of livestock products—may be the largest ever harvested, it is unlikely, officials said, that supplies will be sufficient to allow any material increase in its use in making whiskey.

Some Crops Short

The crop outlook was not without its dark spots. The production of oilseeds—soybeans, peanuts and flaxseed—will be below wartime levels and below demands. Margarine, shortening, salad oils and paints are principal products made from the oil seeds.

Likewise, the rye and barley crops may be the smallest since the droughts of the 30's. These grains, however, are of relatively minor importance in relation to the whole food picture.

On the brighter side was a forecast that the domestic sugar crop may be 25 per cent larger than last year's abnormally small crop.

The Arabs invented algebra.

Countess To Give Up Title For Sergeant

Pittsburgh, July 11 (AP)—She is a countess now but sometime this month she's going to Elkon, Md., with an ex-army sergeant to change the title to "Mrs."

She is 30-year-old Countess Nicole de Rango of Paris who met her fiancé, 30-year-old Robert M. Clark of West Chester, Pa., at her chateau a year ago, after she had hidden out from the Nazis five years. Her husband, Roland, died fighting for France in 1940.

The countess is visiting an aunt Mademoiselle Berthe Levy of Pittsburgh.

She says she won't mind losing her title because—
"I'm so in love!"

Factory Buildings Nearly Complete

Construction of the L. E. Beaudin company plant at Emmitsburg is proceeding rapidly, with one of the two buildings housing the plant already nearly ready for the installation of machinery.

The structures are made of a metal siding and both buildings are completely insulated. When the plant structures are completed, an office building is to be built in front of the two factory buildings.

The company plans to start manufacturing shoes in September.

Husband And Wife Shooting Victims

Erie, Pa., July 11 (AP)—Neighbors, hearing screams and shots, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Schmieder in South Erie to find both dead of shotgun wounds yesterday.

City Detective Edward Allen said the wife, Verda, a WAVE on leave from her station in Memphis, Tenn., lay in a bedroom; the husband in the attic, with a gun near his hand. Allen said indications pointed to "murder and suicide."

The wife's mother, Mrs. John Rickrode, apparently saw the tragedy but was so overcome by shock she could not talk to officers.

HEAT RECORD SET

Pittsburgh, July 11 (AP)—The weather man said it might be a bit cooler today but yesterday was the hottest day Pittsburgh has had in more than a year—93 sizzling degrees.

Whereabouts A Mystery

A mystery developed over the whereabouts and safety of Major Thomas Walker Jurika (right), 31, his wife, Virginia (left) and their six-year-old stepson, Billie, who vanished after leaving Toronto 26 days ago. A telephone call informed relatives in Oakland, Calif., they were "in trouble somewhere near Chicago," and led to the conjecture they may be held by kidnapers. (AP Wirephoto).

Insures Success Of Suicide Plans

Titusville, Pa., July 11 (AP)—Guarding against mishap in his plans to end his life, Ludwig Kolacek, 59, farmer, stood on a trunk, tied a rope around a rafter then around his neck, and fired a .22 caliber rifle bullet into his brain, reported Dr. C. M. Sonne, Crawford county deputy coroner.

Mrs. Kolacek, going to the family garage, found her husband's body hanging. She said he had been dependent since he was injured in an auto accident three years ago.

FORMER ARMY INTELLIGENCE OFFICER HELD

Philadelphia, July 11. (AP)—Harry Kauffmann, 31-year-old German refugee who served as an army intelligence officer during World War II, was held in jail today on a forgery charge after telling police how he accumulated $37,000 through black market operations overseas.

Kauffmann told Police Lieutenant William Greenhaigh he smuggled the money to the United States by photostating and forging enlisted men's documents and then using the papers to purchase army money orders.

The former native of Stuttgart, Germany, who is now a resident of Brookline, Mass., was arrested yesterday while converting money orders into $6,000 cash in a Philadelphia bank, Greenhaigh said.

Kauffmann faces arraignment on the forgery charge today before Magistrate J. A. McDevitt.

Forged Discharge Papers
Additionally the ex-officer was accused of forging, counterfeiting and illegally using 11 army discharge papers in a federal charge. He gets a hearing on those counts Monday before U. S. District Court Judge George A. Welsh.

Greenhaigh said Kauffmann told him he emigrated to the U. S. in 1939 and obtained a job with a textile firm. He enlisted in the army in 1941 and won a commission because he spoke English, Polish and German fluently.

Kauffmann also disclosed he had smuggled jewelry and silverware stolen in Germany into this country. He said he placed the goods in bank deposit vaults in Boston. FBI agents and custom officers said they were checking this phase of the story.

Harry J. Neginger, chief of detectives of the Bankers Protective Association, said Kauffmann had 41 money orders totaling $3,700 on him when he was arrested. Neginger said Kauffmann told him he had already cashed many money orders in New York and Boston banks.

BLU WHITE

If your dealer does not have BLU-WHITE yet, remember—It's new! Keep asking for it!

STATEMENT TO OUR MILK CUSTOMERS

The termination of the Office of Price Administration highlights certain facts which should be called to the attention of all our Customers:

1. The price paid by the customers for milk and milk products since the early part of 1943, was insufficient to compensate the milk producer and us as a milk dealer for costs of producing, processing and delivering your milk and cream. The Government instituted a subsidy program which resulted in its paying to the producer and to the dealer approximately two and one-half cents (2½c) for every quart of Milk bought by the consumer as a subsidy through funds raised by taxation.

2. The expiration of the Office of Price Administration brought an end to this subsidy program.

3. The milk markets of Washington, D. C., Baltimore, northern and southern New Jersey, New York City, and Philadelphia on demand of producers, have all increased their producer prices in an amount equal substantially to the subsidy, and have revised their prices to the consumer to include what was formerly paid by the consumer through taxation.

4. THE MILK CONTROL COMMISSION LAST WEEK DISTRIBUTED TENTATIVE ORDERS FOR EVERY AREA IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA. THESE ORDERS WERE ISSUED AFTER HEARINGS WERE HELD IN EVERY AREA AND TOOK INTO ACCOUNT THE FACTS STATED HERE AS WELL AS MANY OTHERS. THESE ORDERS FIXED RETAIL PRICES IN THE VARIOUS AREAS, AND INCREASED THE PRODUCERS' PRICES COMMENSURATELY.

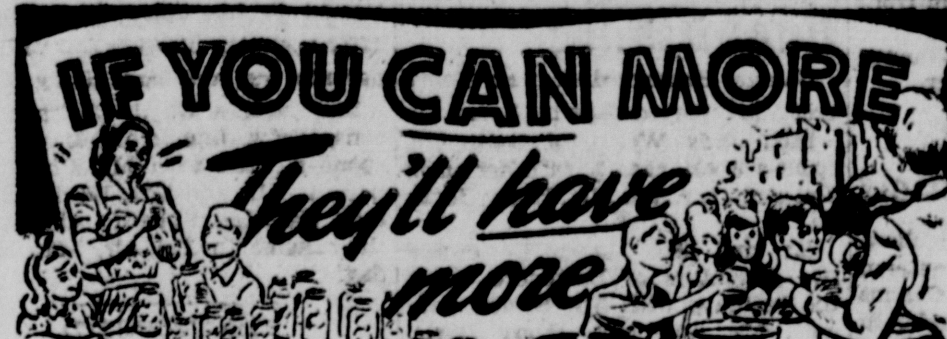

5. The limitation of dealers' profits under the Milk Control Commission since 1933, and under the Office of Price Administration since 1943, makes it impossible for milk dealers to absorb these increased producer prices. THE MILK DEALERS CANNOT ABSORB THE GOVERNMENT SUBSIDY PROGRAM.

6. We will be compelled to ask the customer to pay an increased price for milk necessary to offset the loss of the subsidy. Our price is now fifteen cents (15c) a quart, and in the very near future we will be compelled to increase the price 2 to 3 cents a quart. We do not regulate the price to farmer, neither do we set the price to customer—this is fixed by Milk Control Commission.

7. We are confident that once these facts are understood, our customers will appreciate the situation and realize that prices are not being increased from a profit motive, but merely to cover what previously was paid by taxation.

5 CIO UNIONS URGE STRIKE BY CONSUMERS

Philadelphia, July 11 (AP)—The executive board of the CIO Philadelphia Industrial Union Council, representing 75 local unions, urged its 75,000 members today "to buy only absolute necessities."

Additionally, the group publicly urged the national CIO to initiate a "buyers' strike" until prices return to former OPA ceilings.

"The onslaught on the OPA by special interests has assumed such proportions that we are on the verge of inflation," the board said. "Every increase in prices means a cut in take-home pay. Further inflation will make meaningless the recent wage gains that workers have obtained through collective bargaining. The only resource left to organized labor is further recourse to collective bargaining."

Plans were announced for the picketing of the Reading terminal market—one of the largest food markets in Philadelphia. The board said it would picket the market not because of unfair prices there but as a symbol of retail food distribution in the city.

"Don't Buy Anything"

Yesterday a sound truck manned by officials of Local 107, CIO-United Electrical Workers of America cruised in northwest Philadelphia, its loudspeaker blaring:

"Don't buy anything tomorrow (Thursday). Tell your milkman not to leave any milk. Join the fight against inflation, or your money will be worth nothing."

Student veterans and teenagers paraded in central Philadelphia. Many wore ragged clothing and carried signs which read: "This is what the well-dressed worker will wear without OPA."

Food prices, generally, are higher. A spot check showed meat was selling in most places at double OPA ceiling prices. Restaurants hiked prices five to ten cents a dish. Butter went as high as $1.16 a pound in one market.

Doctor Postpones Operation On Eye

Verona, Pa., July 11 (AP)—The last words Jackie Wisnowski's mother said were "be sure to have your operation, son, no matter what happens."

Tuesday, Jackie's doctor notified him the operation to restore sight to his right eye—scheduled for today in New York had been postponed indefinitely.

The doctor did not say whether the delay was caused by forbidden entry which 16-year-old Jackie shed when his mother dropped dead last week while preparing his clothes for his trip.

Congressmen Tour Jap Diet

Tokyo, July 11 (AP)—American congressmen toured Japan's big Diet building today and drew these conclusions:

Sen. Hugh Butler of Nebraska: "It puts the Washington Capitol to shame."

Sen. Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana: "Luxurious!"

But a Texan—Rep. Eugene Worley—topped them all with "Well, it does compare favorably with the Texas Legislature."

PRICE ON HER FLANK

Wilmington, Del., July 11—A young cow roamed Wilmington streets today — with a price on her hindquarters. The animal was seen in several sections of the city.

STATE LEADER OF VFW HITS PAY PROPOSAL

Philadelphia, July 11 (AP)—The Senate Military Committee's plan to stagger payment of some $2,750,000 in veterans terminal leave pay was called "unfair and unrealistic" today by Nelson W. McCloskey, commander of the Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"The plan of paying a maximum of $50 in cash and the balance in five-year non-negotiable bonds as proposed by the Senate committee to avoid inflationary effects is characteristic of the unrealistic thinking that has marked Congressional attempts to help veterans adjust their postwar problems," McCloskey said.

McCloskey asserted that "there are between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 unemployed veterans in Pennsylvania today. A $50 cash payment is little help to them now." He said the money "be given them now when they need it most."

chairman of the encampment committee, said certificates of merit will be awarded Judges Harry S. McDevitt and Vincent A. Carroll for "outstanding work in behalf of the citizens of Philadelphia through their participation in civilian defense work."

The publishers of Philadelphia's four daily papers—Walter Ammerberg of the Inquirer; J. CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better—Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up rights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

JEWISH GIRL IN GERMANY GIVES IMPRESSIONS

(This is another in a series of columns written by representative Germans for Hal Boyle. Today a German Jewish girl gives her impressions of Germany under Allied rule.)

Berlin, July 10 (AP)—I must admit, unfortunately, that I belong to the very few Germans who still feel liberated and who are grateful for it.

My countrymen consider themselves still at war. They see no difference between their life now and the way they have lived for 12 years. I feel like an outcast when I listen to their opinions or argue with them.

What strikes me most of all is that they have forgotten they lost the war, or what it means to lose a war. They only know how to make demands, and their general attitude toward the Allies is that they are "Nazis under a different pretext." I reply that they will have a right to call the Allies "Nazis" when all Germans have to go in public with a "German" printed or sewn on their backs, as Nazis did with the Jews.

Nobody Feels Guilty
It is sickening to observe that nobody feels guilty or depressed over atrocities committed during the war in their name. They feel free of any guilt once they have offered a piece of dry bread to a Jew.

The Allies are making difficult any inner change and progress in their political attitudes. Russia alone is demonstrating a clear political line by pursuing a firm and permanent course.

I leave out all criticism of the Russian policy—but the British and particularly the Americans have no clear political line for the Germans to learn. They have programs and show here and there bits of democracy—that is all.

The American furthermore shows too clearly he regards his stay in Germany as a tiring occupation job which he hates and will give up the day his service is over. The result is that he isn't taken seriously and loses the confidence of the population.

Rumors of War
There is a persistent rumor throughout Germany that there soon will be war with Russia. Some of the blame for this rumor belongs to the Allies, and their attitude to each other.

Why is it so extraordinary to see you Americans, for instance, together with your Russian ally in public? Especially here in Berlin where you are all living together you have the duty to meet frequently, to have joint clubs, to go together to theaters and movies. It should be a natural sight to see a GI and a Russian soldier walking together around the city, but instead everybody stares when a Russian and an American soldier or officer are seen together. Everybody expects to witness a dispute at any moment.

Why don't you have clubs and other places where you can invite together those Germans you trust and with whom you want to cooperate and give them a living example of how silly their war rumors are? No right-thinking German will expect you to receive him with open arms but whom do you really know in this country except your frauleins and their families?

No Allied Policy
People cannot learn democracy alone from books, papers, movies and other cultural instruments. They need a personal contact, they need to see it with their own eyes like the skeptical Thomas in the Bible. They need a warm heart.

You have the reputation to be the strictest nation in regard to the denazification problem, but you sleep with anybody. People know it and know it better than your good actions.

But the main problem is that Germany is occupied by Allies who exercise no Allied policy. The whole world today is suffering from the lack of cooperation, but this is a particularly bad example for a nation which is sitting again on the school bench to learn the political alphabet from the beginning.

A LESSON FROM THE CHINESE

● The story is told that the Chinese pay the doctor to keep them well, and if they contract illness, the doctor pays them instead. Whether or not this story is true, the general idea is sound. Serious illness often can be prevented by regular health examinations. Form a habit of visiting your doctor often—at least twice a year. If you do not have a family physician, we will be glad to recommend several from whom you can make your selection.
